The Princess
service will be transferred to the Rex for the present.

PRINCESS SERVICE

WILL BE TRANSFERRED TO THE
REX THEATRE BY MANAGER STOCKLEY.Manager Stockley states that for the present the services of the Princess will be transferred to the Rex.
Changes to improve the ventilation will be made and it will be made more comfortable and attractive. Mr.
Sudekum, the lessee of the Princess, has not come from Nashville yet, and no definite conclusions have been reached as to when the Princess can be reopened.With a new film the Gerard play "My Four Years in Germany" was put on yesterday at the Rex for the second day and large crowds saw the remarkable picture.Mr. Stockley announces a good program for to-day, including Charlie Chaplin in "Behind The Screen."

SMALL FIRE.

The small grocery store of Lee Smith, east of the L. & N. Railroad on Fourth and Campbell streets, was damaged by fire last night about 9 o'clock. The fire department arrived promptly and the fire was soon put out. It originated on the inside and the contents of the house were all destroyed. The stock was insured for $500. The building was owned by J. T. Whitney, col. who also had insurance.When you want fire, tornado, life or bond insurance in the Oldest, Strongest Companies, see H. D.

Boyd, both of the Kelly vicinity procured a marriage license yesterday and will be married today at Kelly.
The groom is a farmer by occupation and is 63 years of age. This will be his second marriage. The bride's age is given as 42 and this is her first marriage.

COWHERD-BOYD.

Mr. S. L. Cowherd received a telephone message yesterday from Mr.
Will A. Cowherd, his nephew, to the effect that he and Miss Beulah Boyd, of this city, were married in Louisville Monday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. A. R. Kasey, formerly pastor of the M. E. church here.It had been rumored here for some time that this young couple were to be married and the information is no surprise to anyone.
The bride is an attractive and popular lady and well known here and has a host of friends. The groom is a farmer and stock raiser and enjoys the destination of being one of the best in the country. He is also one of the owners of the Dixie

Bee Line Garage, of Hopkinsville.
